PRESS RELEASE

ACA Provides Medical Aid to Cricketer and Cricket Organiser

ACA has recently provided financial aid to one ailing former cricketer and another cricket organiser as a part of its welfare activity.

On being informed that Sri Asif Ekbal Hussain, who is undergoing treatment in Mumbai for quite some time due to illness, Assam Cricket Association has immediately sanctioned a sum of Rs. 50,000.00 (Rupees Fifty Thousand). Sri Asif Ekbal Hussain is a former cricketer of Titabor and has been associated with Titabor District Sports Association since 2007 and is the Cricket Secretary of the said Association since 2009. He is also a prominent social worker of the area.

Another former State cricket player of Dibrugarh Sri Atindranath Thakur, who is also suffering from some serious illness, has also been provided with a sum of Rs. 50,000.00 (Rupees Fifty Thousand) as immediate medical relief for his treatment. Sri Adhikary, who is undergoing treatment in Dibrugarh, represented Assam in the Cooch Behar Trophy in the year 1972 and Col. C.K. Nayudu Trophy in the years 1977-78 and 1978-79.

Assam Cricket Association wishes both these gentlemen a speedy recovery and a healthy life.
