

PRESS RELEASE

The Opening Ceremony of the 7-day Curators' Workshop, organised by ACA Cricket Academy under the aegis of Assam Cricket Association, was held today at the premises of the ACA Stadium, Barsapara, Guwahati in the presence of Shri Devajit Saikia, Secretary, Assam Cricket Association; Shri Porikshit Dutta, Vice President, Assam Cricket Association; Shri Ashish Bhowmik, Chief Curator, BCCI and Shri Ganesh Dutt Chugh, Technical Director, ACA Cricket Academy.

The workshop, attended by around 50 upcoming curators from various district units of Assam Cricket Association, will be conducted by Shri Ashish Bhowmik, Chief Curator, BCCI, who has extensive experience and is considered a veteran in this domain. During the workshop, which will conclude on August 1, 2022, the trainees will be imparted both theoretical and practical lessons on the art and science of curating pitches. The objective of organising this workshop is to promote standard wickets and grounds across Assam.

Speaking on the occasion, Shri Devajit Saikia, Secretary, Assam Cricket Association welcomed all the participants to the workshop. He, at the same time, underscored the growing importance of curators, and how the profession has turned more lucrative with time. He urged all the trainees to make the most out of the workshop.

Shri Ashish Bhowmik, Chief Curator, BCCI, in his address, spoke about the kind of evolution that the profession has undergone over the years, and the scientific bent that it has taken of late. He also lauded the present Apex Council of Assam Cricket Association for undertaking several groundbreaking initiatives to transform the cricket infrastructure of the State of Assam.
