PRESS RELEASE

BASIC LEVEL 'A' PHYSICAL TRAINER'S CLINIC CONDUCTED BY STATE CRICKET ACADEMY, UNDER THE AEGIS OF ASSAM CRICKET ASSOCIATION, CONCLUDES SUCCESSFULLY

The Basic Level 'A' Physical Trainer's Clinic conducted by State Cricket Academy, under the aegis of Assam Cricket Association (ACA), from January 3, 2021 at the ACA Stadium, Barsapara, Guwahati successfully concluded today with a closing ceremony attended by Shri Devajit Saikia, Secretary, ACA; Shri Sujit Kakati, Chief Executive Officer, ACA; Shri Ganesh Dutt Chugh, Technical Director, State Cricket Academy and the participants of the said Clinic.

Speaking on the occasion, Shri Devajit Saikia, Secretary, ACA spoke on the importance of physical fitness for a player in today's time and age when cricketing activities take place throughout the year. He added that the role of professional Physical Trainers in the domain of cricket is fast growing, and, therefore, urged the participants to give their best after going back to their respective districts.

Shri Ganesh Dutt Chugh, Technical Director, State Cricket Academy, in his speech, expressed his satisfaction at the performance of the participants during the said Clinic. He added that the participants were able to imbibe and learn all the theoretical and practical exercises being taught during the Clinic without sustaining any injury.

The participants too expressed their gratitude to Assam Cricket Association and State Cricket Academy for conducting such a useful Basic Level 'A' Physical Trainer's Clinic that stressed on many vital aspects of Physical Fitness including Endurance, Agility and Strengthening, besides teaching as to how to make the process of Physical Training enjoyable for the prospective trainees.

The Basic Level 'A' Physical Trainer's Clinic, attended by 16 participants, was held in accordance with all COVID-19 protocols issued by BCCI.
